The Knight Templars at Erie, Pa.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ERIE, PA., June 8.—At an early hour to day, the evidences of preparation for a gala week were apparent, and at a little after 9 A. M. an escort body of the Sir Knights of Mt. Olivet Commandery, commanded by Sir Knight Col. C. P. Rogers, and preceded by Sherry's brass band, marched to the depot, where the Reception Committee was in waiting to receive and act as an escort to their Masonic brethern. About seventy members of the order, many of them accompanied by their families, arrived on the Pittsburgh and Erie train. Among them were the following officers of the Grand Lodge: Sir Knight John Vallechamp, Grand Commander; Sir Knight James H. Hopkins, Deputy Commander; Sir Knight H. B. McKean, Grand Generalissimo; Sir Knight Charles M. Howell, Grand Captain General; Sir Knight Abram Miller, Grand Senior Warden; Sir Knight T. James, Grand Junior Warden; Sir Knight John H. Dusenbery, Grand Bearer; Sir Knight E. B. Young, Grand Standard Bearer; Sir Knight Charles E. Meyer, Grand Warden; Sir Knight S. Smith, Grand Sentinel. The chief functionaries were escorted in carriages to the Reed House, the Mount Olivet Commandery, in full regalia, acting as a guard of honor and others marching in procession. The lodges represented were those of Harrisburg, Lancaster, Reading, Columbia and York. These delegates were fortunate in finding plenty of rooms at the Reed House.

In the afternoon a large body of the Mt. Olivet Commandery, under command of Sir Knight John E. Payne, proceeded to the depot to meet visiting Sir Knights from Pittsburgh, Meadville, Washington, Greensburg and other places, the Masonic visitors alone numbering upwards of one hundred and twenty. After forming in line they marched to the Reed House, preceded by members of Mt. Olivet Commandery.

The visiting Sir Knights, with the exception of fatigue caps, were in full uniform, and made a fine appearance. What our hotel keepers will do for room, should a large delegation arrive to attend the State Medical Convention, also to be held here to-morrow, we are at a loss to imagine.

Mayor of Jackson, Mississippi, Killed—A Triple Murderer.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, June 8.—A dispatch from Jackson, Mississippi, says Col. J. G. Crane, U. S. A., acting Mayor of Jackson, was shot and killed by E. M. Yerger. The affair grew out of the action of Col. Crane in seizing property of Yerger for taxes. Yerger was arrested by the military.

Mike Mallony, a notorious desperado, while walking down Auction street last night, discovered an old inoffensive negro, named Pleasant, sitting on a curb stone, and without speaking to him, put a pistol to his head and fired, killing him instantly. Maloney then fled. This is the third murder he has committed.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

JACKSON, Miss., June 8.—Brevet Lt. Col. Jas. G. Crane, commanding the Fourth Military District, and acting Mayor of this city, was killed to-day by E. M. Yerger, in a difficulty occasioned by an official order of the Mayor levying on the property of Yerger in default of corporation taxes. The affair had no reference whatever to politics. Col. Crane entered the volunteer service from Dayton, Ohio, in 1861, and was held in high esteem by the community. Yerger was arrested and confined at the barracks.

The experiment was a success.

A Dubuque special to the Democrat says a new feature in the grain movement has been developed. F. G. Siller has arranged to ship grain in barges to the elevator at East St. Louis, thence by railroad to New York, without breaking bulk, at seven cents per bushel lower than the Illinois Central Railroad charges from here.

The Irish Church Crisis—The Threatened Conflict Between the Lords and Commons—Gladstone Denounced by the Tories—Indignant Comments by the Press—Probability of the Lords Being Frightened into Submission—The Alabama Controversy—The French Elections—Tranquility in Spain—Call for Reinforcements for Cuba Countermanded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, June 8.—The announced predetermination of the House of Lords to reject the Irish Church bill creates intense excitement, and threatens to bring about a conflict between the Lords and Commons. It is rumored in some quarters that the announcement is only made to feel the public pulse and ascertain how far the Lords dare go. The general impression is the bill will be thrown out on its second reading.

The Standard, tory, admits the peril of the proposed action is too obvious to be ignored by thoughtful or conscentious hereditary legislators, but says the Lords resolved, in compliance with tens and hundreds of thousands of people in every part of the country, to risk all in a contest with an imperious Minister, and with the overbearing majority in the House of Commons. If crushed, not only the Church and the Constitution fall, but the liberties of England will be sacrificed to the ascendancy of that Democratic principle which is the most dangerous foe of personal and political freedom. It matters not whether those approved regret the decision to give battle. There is nothing for them to do but take their places in the ranks and fight for all they hold dearest, in the full certainty that all is at stake. Let the whole Protestant and Conservative power of the Realm be exerted and give the Lords such support of public opinion as to restrain the struggle within the limits of the Constitution, and make a self-willed and overbearing Minister, always at heart the enemy of the Lords, and likely to be exasperated by his unexpected defeat, feel that there are limits he dare not pass. Already have his organs threatened that which, if done, would call for impeachment. It is necessary that he be made to feel that he dare not execute the threat—that he must not only deal with the Lords, but with the wealthy, resolute and influential classes of England and Ireland, who are the actual majority of the English nation.

The Morning Post shows a rejection of the bill will not prevent its passage, and discredits the idea that the Lords will refuse it a second reading.

The Star uses threatening language, and says the Church of Ireland must not cumber the ground after December. The least which will be said will be proclaimed from the housetops, viz: that the House of Lords is not a more logical, desirable, excusable institution than the Irish Church. In the fever heat which will follow the rejection of the bill, a heat such as has not been seen since Birmingham threatened to march on London in the name of reform. Cries will be heard for the downfall of an obsolete chamber, no longer a disguised anachronism, existing by the decent deference of the popular will, which Wellington once said ought never again to be withheld. With pure blindness of buzzards, these misguided noblemen require further proofs to be convinced of the opinion of the country. It is not worth while to attempt a demonstration of that opinion. When the issue comes their Lordships will be wise in their time.

The News says the vote of the Lords will at the worst postpone, for a few months only, the fate of the Irish Church. Its indirect effect will be graver. It will raise the question of the position the House of Lords holds under the Constitution. The relations of the constituencies, the House of Commons, the Executive and the Crown, are self adjusting. If a hitch occurs, the machinery sets itself in order by its own action. The House of Lords stands outside this system. Its good sense fails only when brought in harmony with the rest of the Constitution.

The Lords seem bent upon forcing the public to notice their position. The Peers threaten the revival of pretensions long abandoned, namely the old baronial attitude of medieval days, when the Commons were only allowed the right of humble supplication, and not really to govern the country.

The Telegraph has a timid article which concludes as follows: The country has spoken unmistakably and finally. If forced to speak again, its accent will no longer be free from indignation or preserve the mood of moderation which it desires to maintain.

The Times says: We are on the eve of a crisis. Nothing since the throes which preceded the Reform Bill can be compared with the consequences which attend the threatened conduct of the Peers. The result of the struggle is not doubtful. If the Lords succeeded at first, they would be compelled to undergo a second tender of the measure which they have rejected at first. The results of their action touch all, put in jeopardy not only themselves and their privileges, but the peace of the great towns and maintenance of law and order in the country. Above all they do their best to provoke an outburst of violence in an unhappy country, the vast majority of whose inhabitants the Lords propose to outrage by a contemptuous disregard of their wishes. As to the majority, the opposition draw this conclusion, that they are resolved to entrench themselves in their own opinions and rely upon their fancied power, in disdain of the consequences to themselves and the nation. They will be rudely awakened from their delusion. It cannot be doubtful which will succeed in the contest, themselves or the nation. The only question is not whether the power they think they posses is to be proved non-existent, but whether the power which they can exercise will not be so irrevocably broken as to vanish out of existence.

Outside of the papers the people talk very revolutionary. The probability is the Lords will be alarmed into the passage of the bill, but the mere fact of the announcement of the inclination and power to defeat it evidently excites discussion adverse to the continuation of hereditary legislation.

The Times to-day refers to the fact that some of the Tory Peers declined to follow the policy in regard to the Irish Church Bill determined upon by the majority at their meeting last Saturday, and trusts the danger of a collision is past. The experience of the last two days reaffirms the truth that in a direct issue the Lords must allow the national will to prevail. The present aspect indicates the passage of the bill to its second reading by a small majority.

The same paper, in an article on the French elections, points to the fact that three and a half millions of Frenchmen are voting in opposition to only four millions who support the Government. Whatever the relative strength of parties may be in the Corps Legislatif, this is a significant result of universal suffrage and is bound to influence the entire policy of the French Government.

The Telegraph, referring to the attitude of the House of Lords, says the nation only must govern the nation. To this Lord Derby and other Peers assented when last year they invited the judgment of the nation on the suspensory bill. The Peers now may well accept the jurisdiction to which they appealed.

The News has an editorial on the Alabama controversy. It believes the storm of feeling is clearing away, and says: "We are now about ready to deal with facts. The Americans have forgotten facts. They recollect unfriendly words, but disregarded the memory of friendly deeds. Great Britain is ready to bear her own responsibility, but when charged with all the damage done to American commerce during the late war, she must remind America that only a small part of that damage lies at her door, or is admitted by her."

The call seems favorably received.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The War Against Awnings.

There is an old ordinance on that very uncertain auxiliary to the municipal government called the city code, which provides against the erection of awning posts on the sidewalks. It was framed many years ago to provide against nuisances in the shape of wooden posts and sheds thrown up on the principal thoroughfares to guard windows from the rays of the sun. In late years a style of awning frames of iron, light and graceful looking and certainly not an obstruction to the sight, has superceded the old ones, but they are nevertheless violations of the old ordinance. A difficulty occurred yesterday between two merchants on Market street about an awning which encroached on the windows of one of them, which was carried to the Mayor's office for settlement. The Mayor could do nothing else but order the nuisance to be abated. The merchant wos not satisfied with the decision, so he called on the Mayor to enforce the ordinance against all who have awnings supported by posts The Chief of Police was duly instructed to notify every one violating the ordinance to conform to the law. This promulgation created much intensity of feeling, and a formidable petition to the Mayor was addressed, asking him to suspend further action until Councils can be heard from in the matter. We learn that the request has been acceded to, and that the war on the awning posts will not be prosecuted until Councils refuse to wipe out the old ordinance.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday on the body of Jacob Lauther, who was suffocated while cleaning the ashes from under a set of boilers, at Richey, Harrison & Co.'s furnace, McClure township. It appears from the testimony that Lauther was engaged in removing the ashes which had collected under the boilers on the fire wall, back of the grate bars, and for that purpose had, after throwing a considerable quantity of water in to prevent the dust from annoying him, entered a man hole in the side of the wall, at or near the back end of the boilers, for the purpose stated, when it is presumed he was suffocated from the gases arising from the ashes which were hot when the water was thrown upon them. He first entered the place about nine o'clock yesterday morning and came out in a few minutes afterwards, and returned again, after which nothing was seen of him until his lifeless body was found inside the enclosure about ten o'clock. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

ANNIVERSARY.

Sixth Avenue Mission Sunday School—Third Anniversary—Annual Reports—Interesting Exercises.

Last evening was an occasion of great interest and enjoyment to the young folks and friends of the Sixth avenue Mission Schools. It has been the custom at the commencement of each new year in the history of the organization, to celebrate the event by appropriate anniversary exercises, which have heretofore been of such an attractive character that they are looked forward to with many pleasant anticipations, and have become a very agreeable feature in the operations of the school. Hence the return of the Third anniversary occasion last evening created quite a buzz of excitement and activity among the scholars and attracted an audience which filled to overflowing the large auditorium of the Second U. P. Church, in which the exercises were held. The church had been beautifully and profusely decorated with evergreens and flowers of the rarest perfume. The wall in the rear of the pulpit was draped in large festoons of evergreens, while upon the chandeliers, pulpit stands, and upon all sides the same appropriate emblems of purity attracted the attention of the spectators. The animated and happy throngs of children, with their bright and beaming countenances, were gathered in the main body of the church, the remaining space and out beyond the vestibule being filled to the utmost with those who assembled as interested friends and visitors.

After all had become quieted the exercises were comenced with the singing of a hymn, followed by prayer by the Rev. John G. Brown, D. D.

The address of welcome was then delivered in a neat and effective style by Master Alfred Roenigk, who developed considerable elocutionary talent.

Mr. T. J. Gillespie now read the Secretary's annual report, which embraced a brief sketch of the school from its organization three years ago, and the progress made during the past year. This report, after a few introductory sentences, refers touchingly to the death of one of the most active teachers, Miss Emma Clark, who during the year was called away from earthly toil to partake of the rest and blissful enjoyments of Heaven. Reference is next made to the especial progress of the school during the year, which has been of the most gratifying character. At present five hundred and eighty-two scholars are enrolled, with an average attendance of three hundred and seventy-five. Prayer meetings, singing classes, an elocutionary class, taught by Miss Maggie McCreight, the "Hanna Literary Society" and a class of Honor, numbering about one hundred members, are pleasing and encouraging attractions to the usual routine of school exercises, and tend to bind the hearts and minds of the scholars more closely to the organization.

The report further refers to the teachers meetings, the system of lessons taught in the school and similar matters connected with its government, which have during the year been of great benefit to both teacher and scholar.

The report of the Missionary of the School, Mr. Edwin Sherratt, was next read, which exhibited in a marked degree the benefits and blessings which his labors were conferring upon those with whom he is laboring.

The report was unanimously adopted.

A select singing class of boys and girls next chanted the 23d Psalm in a remarkably correct manner, Mr. Edwin Sherratt presiding at the organ.

This was followed by a dialogue by Masters Thomas Moore and David Maxwell, in which the lads acquitted themselves noticeably well.

Another anthem was rendered in happy style by the Singing Class, after which the Superintendent, Mr. Thos. H. Rabe, taught a model blackboard lesson, the children answering the questions by classes, and displaying great aptitude and proficiency.

After another hymn by the singing class, brief addresses were delivered by Major William Frew, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hanna, and the Superintendent, Mr. Thomar H. Rabe. The Secretary read his report, from which it appeared that four hundred dollars had been collected during the year for the missionary fund. Rev. Jno. G. Brown made a few remarks, while each of the children was being presented with a book, the gift of the Superintendant as a memento of the occasion. When all had been supplied, Rev. Warner Long closed the exercises with prayer and the audience was dismissed, all departing with bright and happy remembrances of the manner in which the evening hours had been passed.

Trial of Hay Forks.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The farmers of Upper St. Clair and adjoining townships had quite a lively time on Friday, 28th, in the trial of the best hay forks now before the people. The place of exhibition was in the barn of Alexander Gilfillan. Five forks was entered for competition by the extensive fork agents A. Gilfillan and F. L. Marshall. The Sprout's Fork, entered by John Gilfillan, Esq., the Screw Fork, represented by Wm. F. Fife, and a fork manufactured by Mr. Duff, of Bridgeville, the original Harpoon Hay Fork, with improved set or trigger, and also Hawley's improved grapples for attaching to rafters, which is certainly of great pratical use to farmers. The last named fork and grapple was represented by D. C. Bowers and Scott Donnelly, who have bought the territory of Snowden, Upper St. Clair and South Fayette townships. The forks were all thoroughly tested and tried in every way, and gave general satisfaction.

The General Agent, A. J. Nellis, of the Harpoon, was present. Being an expert in the business and a clever talker, he did well for his employers, and no doubt will succeed in introducing his very valuable fork and grapples to the farmers. Such contests, where conducted on fair and honorable grounds, are just what the farmers want, and when such Shearing Festivals as that held on the farm of John Gildllan on the 20th, can be got up, agricultural implements will be received and the whole neighborhood greatly benefitted, and we wish such enterprising farmers abundant success.

THE SPINNIN WHEEL.

A SCOTCH BALLAD.

As I sat at my spinnin' wheel,
A bonny l ddie passed me by;
I turned me round and viewd him weel,
An' O, I liked his glanc'n' eye;
His look unto my heart did steal;
But aye I turned my spinnin' wheel.

My well-shaped hands he did extol,
He praised my fingers neat and small,
He said there nae was lady fair
That woul at all wi' me compare;
His words into my heart did steal;
But aye I turned my spinnin' wheel.

He coaxed lay bye my rock an' reel,
My windin' an' my spinnin' wheel,
He coaxed me lay them a' aside,
An' go and be his bonny bride.

THE Anvil Chorus of the one hundred Boston firemen at the Jubilee is sure to be a very striking performance.

A FRENCH mother-in-law says: "What affords me pleasure in the death of my grandson is the grief it will cause to my son-in-law."

THE signboard of a tavern, near Strasbourg, France, bears the following inscription: "Strong beer and wine of the first quality. Customers drinking more than twelve glasses will be sent home in a cab, free of charge, in case they are unable to walk."

WOMEN talk—men act. Women dream—men think. Women sit around hesitatingly—men go and do promptly. Women guess—men decide. Women are going to see about it by and by—men face the thing on the instant. Women passively accept—men bodily (and often to their sorrow) propose.

EVEN Frenchwomen are disagreeable to one another sometimes. The other day two "dearest friends" were in conversation. "My dear," said the eldest, "do you know that your husband told me last night that my cheeks were like roses?" "Yes, love, I know he did. He spoke of it afterwards, and said it was a pity they were yellow roses."

TANNERS' bark is becoming dear, and a better means of utilizing it are being discovered. The first great improvement is to reduce it to powder, instead of the coarse grinding that is usual. Twenty per cent. more of tannin is thus obtained by leaching it in cold water, driven into the mass by powerful hydraulic machinery, than by the old methods. Hot water gives a still greater yield, but it also extracts some new element injurious to leather.

A CONSPIRACY to flood the country with counterfeit money, with headquarters in Canada, has just been discovered. The plan was to scatter men in all the principal cities of the North and West, and have the money put into circulation simultaneously. The fourth of July was the day fixed for the operation, and the intention was to distribute as many spurious notes as possible between sunrise and midnight.

RAIN water caught during May or the first week in June, will keep a long time perfectly pure and sweet. Some caught in 1828 was pronounced as sweet as spring water in 1850.

THE receipts to the Ticket Agent of the Pacific Railroad at Omaha have averaged $4,000 per day since the opening of the road. One day this week the evening train for Sacramento took seven passenger cars full, the majority of which were through passengers.

AT Bucharest, recently, a brigand of herculean strength was about to be hung for murder. He burst the straps which bound him, like flax, seized the executioner, and hanged him before assistance could arrive. He was thereupon appointed to his victim's office.

A CONTRIVANCE by which the true magnetic line will be indicated in every latitude, uninfluenced by local causes, and prevent or obviate the variation of the compass, has been devised at Graff Reinet, South Africa. The inventor will go to England to secure the patent.

THE other night, Military Hall, in Patterson, New Jersey, was struck by lightning, which invaded a ball room in which there was a dance going on. The lightning ran under a long bench which was filled with girls, and overturned the whole lot, upsetting the girls, face downward, into the middle of the floor, and stunning them for a minute. A man had all the hair burned off his head.

THE Illustration of Paris publishes an engraving of a great spreading tree near Cairo, under which, according to tradition, Joseph and Mary and the infant Jesus took shelter during their flight into Egypt. The tree, which stands on ground belonging to the Isthmus of Suez Canal Company, was marked to be cut down, but the Empress Eugenie has purchased it standing and now pays a keeper to watch it.

THEY are running a railroad through the old dueling ground at Weehawken, New Jersey, and the granite block which marked the spot upon which Burr stood at the time of his duel with Hamilton, has been taken up, and used as a covering stone for a culvert. The intelligent "boss" of the job said he thought "Burr was a mean cuss, anyhow, and not of much account, and he guessed it would be more useful doing duty as a covering stone than perpetuating his memory."

AN inexorable brute of statistical proclivities, perpetrates the following atrociously hard facts concerning the ages of the most beautiful and attractive of our female theatrical stars: Laura Keene is fifty-six; Mrs. John Drew is over sixty; Mrs. Bowers is forty-five; Maggie Mitchell is forty-one; Charlotte Thompson is thirty-four; Effie Germon forty; Kate Reignolds is forty-three; Lotta is twenty-six; Charlotte Cushman is nearly seventy, and a maiden: Mrs. Davenport Lander is fifty. Lydia Thompson will never see thirty again, and Miss Marriott has arrived at "years of discretion."

A SEMINARY has been opened in Berlin in connection with the Evangelical Johannnesstift, for the purpose of educating young men—of whom there are already seven in the establishment—to fill the offices of clergymen and teachers among the German immigrants in the United States. The constant stream of immigration from Germany to America has made the want of educated pastors and schoolmasters every day more and more felt. The North American seminary, though united to the Johannesstift, is an independent administration and has separate accounts, but they are both entirely dependent on voluntary contributions for their support.

DURING the late meeting at Berlin of the Society for Giving Aid to Sick and Wounded in Time of War, the Prussian army had a grand manœvre. In this they imitated exactly an actual field of battle. Men were supposed to be killed and wounded, and were borne off the field. The ambulances were all equipped as for war, and the army surgeons were on duty and watching over the carriage of wounded men, as if the field of battle were a real one. To test the medical arrangements, the number of men supposed to be wounded was made greater than would actually be the case, and wounds of all kinds were supposed to be inflicted. Every wounded man was attended to on the field.

Two students of St. Vincent's College at Wheeling, while swimming in Wheeling Creek, on Thursday afternoon, attempted to carry two smaller boys across the creek on their backs. One of them, William Johnson, had a smaller boy named Baxter on his shoulders, and when in the middle of the stream was heard to cry out, "Baxter you are choking me." A brother of Johnson's, who stood on the shore, seeing him in distress, plunged in and succeeded in relieving him of his load, thinking he would have no further difficulty. The latter, however, immediately went under the surface, rose again and sank to rise no more. The boys immediately commenced diving for him, and in a few minutes found and brought to shore his body, but it was too late.

THE Unwearied Action of the Heart.—The effect of everything that touches the heart is multiplied by the intensity of the heart's own changes. Hence it is that it is so sensitive—so true and qick an index of the body's state. Hence, also it is that it never wearies. Let me remind you of the work done by our hearts in a day. A man's total outward work, his whole effect upon the world, in twenty-four hours, has been reckoned at about 350 foot-tons. That may be taken as a good "hard day's work." During the same time, the heart has been working at the rate of 120 foot-tons. That is to say, if all the pulses of a day and night could be concentrated and welded into one great throb, that throb would be enough to throw a ton of iron 120 feet into the air. And yet the heart is never weary. Many of us are tired after but feeble labors; few of us can hold a poker out at arm's length without, after a few minutes, dropping it. But a healthy heart, and many an unsound heart, too—though sometimes you can tell in the evening, by its stroke, that it has been vexed during the day, that it has been thrown off its balance by the turmoils and worries of life—goes on beating through the night while we are asleep, and when we awake in the morning, we find it at work, fresh as if it had only just began to beat. It does this because upon each stroke of work there follows a period, a brief but real period of rest; because the next stroke which comes is but the natural sequence of that rest, and made to match it; because, in fact, each beat is, in force, in scope, in character, in everything, the simple expression of the heart's own energy and state.—Appletons' Journal.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhœa, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated Vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is falling slowly with seven feet in the channel by Monongahela marks last evening. Weather cool and pleasant.

No arrivals or departures to report aside from the regular packets.

Business is moderately active, as much so as is usually the case at this season of the year. Freights, apparently, are a little plentier than last week, and in the absence of any material competition, prices are pretty well sustained.

The steamer St. Marys has withdrawn from the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati trade, and is lying at Wheeling. Capt. Sweeney intends cutting her upper guards off and fitting her up for the Red river trade.

Capt. Sam Dean, has assumed command of the Camelia. She is laid up.

Capt. Jas. F. Kenniston, a Cincinnati steamboatman, has been here for several days with a view of purchasing a boat. The last boat he had command of, the Melnotte, was destroyed by the conflagration at Cincinnati some time since.

The Maggie Hays left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday evening.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg today, leaving promptly at noon.

The towboat Sam Roberts was reported aground at White's Ripple yesterday. She was en route for Louisville with a tow of coal.

The Wm. Stone left yesterday with a tow of six barges, 60,000 bushels, of coal. The Stone will proceed until she meets the Coal Valley, when the latter boat will take the tow of the Stone and return to Louisville.

The Whale, with seven barges, 70,000 bushels, and the Coal Hill, with the same number of barges and bushels, departed yester day.

The Lawrence, Capt. U. H. Hart, is filling up rapidly for Cincinnati and Louisville and will take her departure to-day, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The Lorena, Capt. Sam. Shuman, is announced to depart for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi to-morrow.

The Glasgow, Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr., is announced for the Upper Mississippi and passengers and shippers should bear in mind that she will go clear up to St. Paul.

—The Louisville reshipped her New Orleans freight at St. Louis on the Lizzie Gill.

—The Submarine No. 14 made the run to Omaha in five days, and handled over 3,000 sacks of grain on the trip, and then left for Benton with 205 tons of freight.

—The barge line at St. Louis is flush with accumulated freights. Captain Rea offered to load the John Kilgour or Louisville, in one day, but they didn't like the rates.

—The body of Albert Jackson, a negro hand on the General Lytle, who was drowned off that boat at Louisville on Tuesday, was recovered on Friday.

—Captain Montgomery denies that Captain Richardson is to take command of the Dexter in the bend trade the coming season.

—The Dubuque Herald, of the 3d, says: The Key City collided with the bridge Tuesday night, while attempting to pass through the draw, and damaged her guards, but not enough to prevent her returning up the river an hour afterwards. The danger was discovered in time to prevent what might have been serious consequences.

—The snagboat R. E. De Russy reached her field of operations May 26. She works between Nebraska City and Sioux City. We understand she had considerable snagging and removing obstructions on account of the scarcity of fuel, there being but very little wood in her district. She will work up through her beat, odly taking out the channel snags, and then work down, clearing the river thoroughly. She is commanded by Captain R. E. Birch, with Messrs. Chas. Conoyer and John Denning at the wheel.

—The Tom Rees, with four barges, left Cincinnati for St. Louis on Saturday night, where she has a full cargo of iron ore engaged.

—The Kate Putnam arrived at Cincinnati on Saturday night. She shipped her Louisville freight and will return from Cincinnati.

—The Nashville American, of Friday, says: Capt. Boyd had engaged for the New York 100 tuns of iron and 60 bales cotton, which she failed to get by turning back from Clarksville.

—The Tom Farrow and barges were to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Sunday night. Pilots—Whitten and McDonald.

—The Mountain Belle, it is said, is going into the Cincinnati and Kanawha river trade, with Capt. Newton in command.

—The little Arrowline exploded her boiler, near Marietta, a few days since. No one injured.

—The United States Marshal has seized the steamboat Osage on the Missouri river, near Hermann, for claims upon it.

—The Cincinnati Commercial of Sunday says: Judge Noyes, yesterday, appointed Capt. A. Q. Ross Deputy Inspector of Steam Boilers for the Second District, and Benj. Everson to the same position in the First District. Capt. Ross is a practical engineer, and qualified for the office.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 138¾.

THE Republicans have made a clean sweep in the municipal election at Washington.

WE judge from the best information we can obtain that the recent frosts occasioned no damage to the fruit or cereals.

AMOROUS old gentlemen should take warning from the heavy verdict just awarded a maiden of thirty summers, at Wheaton, Ill., of $100,000 damages sustained by a breach of promise. The defendant in the case is somewhere above sixty years of age and worth a million of dollars in Chicago property.

THE Commercial victory in the late Conventions appears to be assuming smaller proportions each day. It has been counting the dead, wounded and missing and concludes that the fight did not result so advantageously to its forces as at first imagined.

JAMES M. BREDIN, Esq., a lawyer of large ability, has the Republican support of Venango county for the State Senate. If he secures the nomination and finds place in the Senate chamber, the people of the whole Commonwealth will have cause to be grateful to Venango for putting him forward. D. MCJUNKIN, Esq., has received the nomination for Assembly, which is another judicious and admirable selection.

A NASHVILLE dispatch remarks as follows of the Saturday evening meeting at which the rival candidates for Governor announced their respective positions on the suffrage question.

The meeting revealed the fact that so far the colored men of Nashville and Davidson are almost unanimously for Stokes. It is difficult to say, however, what changes may be made during the canvass. The Conservatives are unanimously for Senter, and this morning both the Democratic papers of this city come out for him squarely. The greater number of white Republicans seem to be for him also. The campaign presents some singular features, and will be one of the most interesting ever fought in Tennessee.

WE BELIEVE it was New Orleans that generously tendered the freedom of the city to BEN BUTLER after he had captured it and placed the people under military rule. The conqueror advised the taking out of a patent on the idea by the generous municipal authorities. The Commercial, after its burst of affected enthusiasm over its "triumph" in the recent Conventions, where it knocked circles into squares, in sober second thought, thinks a revolt would follow in the party if other such bodies were to assemble. By all means let the Commercial take out a patent for its novel method of getting up an exhibition of very decided satisfaction.

THE honest man's own paper down street is disgusted with its friends from the country, who were bamboozled by leaders into acting differently than they meant to do in the several late Conventions. Those "rings," those "leaders" are awful fellows to manipulate the honest and unsophisticated friends of the Commercial from the rural districts, and use them just as they please. We have generally thought it a difficult matter to change the minds of intelligent delegates coming fresh from the people of the country towns and villages, but those "rings" have discovered the secret, if the Commercial be true, and breathing upon them mould them in shape to suit, as easily as if they were made of wax.

A WASHINGTON reporter telegraphed the other day to the New York Tribune, that the Secretary of the Treasury was then holding a currency balance of $246,000,000! Whereupon, the editor seems to have feared that the country would be too much astounded by these figures to credit their accuracy, and gravely reiterates them in an encouraging paragraph upon the financial prospects of the Nation. Really, we could not very well be considered to be in a bad way, with a balance of $107,000,000 in gold, and of $246,000,000 in currency, for cash on hand. The total represents about four hundred millions in greenbacks. Imagine the rage of H. G. when his eye met these absurd statements, the next morning!

WE WOULD say to those country journalists who had not enough penetration to see through the triumphant and gushing tones of the Commercial, after the sitting of the several Republican Conventions in our city, and discover that it really was dying from the mortification of defeat, that, if they want at this late day to truly measure the proportions of its victory over the leaders of the party—men who have contributed their time, money and talents to building up the overwhelming majority which makes our county conspicuous, and yet who are brazenly called "corruptionists" in return for their services—they have but to read the editorial columns of our contemporary yesterday. The "leaders" can afford to meet such "crushing defeats" as the Commercial can bring about every day of the year, and in the end come out refreshed and stronger.

THE Irish Church bill, which passed proudly and triumphantly through the House of Commons, will be savagely assailed in the House of Lords, and in all probability rejected. There is trouble brewing in England, if the voice of her masses for reform be unheeded by the arrogant and aristocratic Peers. The disestablishment of the church is a progressive step the people have decided to make, and the spirit of democracy aroused cannot be set at rest by the illiberal policy and conduct of a body already odious and despised. Out of the Irish Church question may arise larger trouble than any now anticipate. The system has long been a galling chain forced by despotic rule on an oppressed race, and never in the centuries through which worn were the people indifferent to the hardship imposed. The time has been reached for reform, and the people demand a hearing. Should their expectations be not realized, revolution may follow, and out of it, who can tell what will not come?

REVERDY JOHNSON INTERVIEWED.

A reporter for the New York Times has had a long interview with the ex-Minister, and narrates the conversation very fully. Mr. JOHNSON was communicative concerning his official career in England. Of Senator SUMNER, he made this remarkable declaration:

Mr. Sumner wrote to Mr. Bright on the 19th or 20th of last January that the protocol which I sent here would have been almost unanimously approved if it had been received three weeks sooner. The fact is, the incoming President did not want the question settled during the administration of Andrew Johnson, and the Republican party did not want it settled by me. They did not want the eclat of having the most difficult question, short of the question of actual separation, that has arisen between the two countries, settled by a Democratic administration. That was the point of objection to my course and to my protocol. Mr. Sumner said to my colleague, Mr. Vickers, that a month earlier, 'it would have been as welcome as champagne.' Bright denounces Sumner's speech in the strongest terms.

In the following, he charges upon his own government a practical change of front, the inferences being that the new Administration, looking about for tenable ground on which to stand in opposing a ratification of the protocol, was inclined to find it an earlier claim suggested by Mr. SEWARD in '66, but which had been suffered to remain in abeyance. Mr. JOHNSON is reported, on this point, as follows:

"This question of belligerency was covered in my protocol, and as much reparation was there made for it as ever the English Government will consent to make. Why, France recognized the South; Spain did it: Russia did it. Why is England alone to be held accountable for it? They will never tolerate the idea. By the way, how about the diplomatic correspondence? Has it all been published—I mean that which covered my protocol? Immediately after the treaty was negotiated, on the 14th of January, I wrote a letter on the treaty generally, and on the 17th I sent a long dispatch vindicating and explaining it, which has not yet, so far as I have seen, been published. Mr. Seward wrote me at the time that both he and Mr. Johnson were satisfied with all that I had done, and that the protocol was satisfactory. After the treaty was sent here, I, for the first time, saw that the United States Government was disposed to think that it had claims of its own, distinct from the individual claims of its citizens. This made a new complication which I had not dreamed of."

"But Mr. Seward in 1860 insisted very strongly that the recognition of the South as belligerents by the English Government was a grievous national wrong to the United States."

"I know he did, but no claim for damages arising under it was made, at least I was not instructed to present a bill for that alleged offence. When I learned the fresh demand of the United States, I went to see Lord Clarendon. I had a conversation with him and expressed my willingness to sign a Supplemental Convention, if the claims were pressed by the United States, in which it was agreed to submit the claims that either Government might have against the other to arbitration. Clarendon did not exactly reject my offer, but asked me if I did it under special instructions. I said not under 'special instructions, but I thought my general instructions covered it. Clarendon and I parted without arriving at a satisfactory conclusion so far as the point was concerned. I then telegraphed to Secretary Fish that 'I could get claims that either Government may have upon the other submitted in the same way as the private, individual Alabama claims, if instructed. Will you instruct?' Mr. Fish answered me that Convention was in the Senate, and he did not know. That would have let Mr. Sumner's claim in, but now it will not be considered in the shape presented because it is extravagant.

"But suppose it is insisted upon." "President Grant will not insist upon it, I am confident. If he should do it, war will be the result."

THE FREE TRADE FALLACY.

During the greater part of the dark era of the domination of slavery in the politics of this country, the Southern States adhered, through their representatives in Congress and elsewhere, with increasing tenacity, to the principles of Free Trade. In this matter, the leading men of that section were wiser than they thought. They proceeded upon the assumption that their people had a monopoly of cotton, both as to quantity and quality, so absolute and enduring that it could not be broken or evaded. In this they were mistaken, as the developments of the last eight years have abundantly demonstrated. Their wisdom was not here. It consisted rather in unconsciously espousing a commercial and revenue system in consonance with the social and labor structure of their society. Slavery, in all its essential elements, was barbarism. It was the rule of the few, through superior knowledge, over the many, who were necessarily held in such ignorance that it was impossible for them to acquire familiarity with the higher industries pertaining to ripe civilization. Hence, only the more primary industries were congenial to such a condition of social organization, and those existed only in their ruder forms. In this state of affairs, Free Trade was natural, perhaps inevitable. This adaptation of governmental measures to social arrangements was undoubtedly wise, though they who who insisted upon it were not aware of the real sources of the impulses by which they were actuated.

With the return of peace the Southern people instinctively returned to their former industries, and to the production of cotton, as the chiefest among them. They were at once confronted by several facts of high significance. The first, that during the rebellion special efforts had been made to grow cotton in other countries, and that a better and cheaper staple had been produced in abundance. India, Algiers, Australia and various other countries have embarked in cotton culture with extraordinary success. Then, too, the freemen will not work at as low rates as they were compelled to when held in bondage, and that every step in their intellectual and moral elevation will cause a still further relative increase in the compensation they will demand and obtain. Moreover, this question of wages is complicated with that of the inflation of the currency. In all the higher industries wages have advanced, and those engaged in the ruder employments cannot get on at all without insisting on higher pay. As the trades are now organized, it is difficult to see where this increase of wages will ultimately end. Every advance in the departments of skilled labor compels an advance in all other forms of work; and this action and reaction seems destined to go on until specie payments shall be reached, when wages and commodities will alike be measured by the natural and intrinsic standard.

Meanwhile there are indications that the Southern people will renounce their devotion to Free Trade and lean, more or less decidedly, to Protection in one form or another. The movements of Southern Legislatures and commercial conventions for national aid in restoring the levees which were broken during the war, may be resolved into this category. By the reclamation of the Mississippi bottoms, and the use of them in growing cotton, it is believed that a yield will be secured so much larger than is known elsewhere as to more than make up for the higher cost of labor. What Congress will do with the applications which will be pressed upon it, cannot even be conjectured. With the restoration of the Southern States to representation in the two Houses, they will possess a formidable degree of power, and the urgency of the case may enable them to supplement their own force by accessions of strength from the East and West.

This much is clear, that the Southern States, having had a domestic system coincident with the best modern civilization, incorporated thereon without their consent, and in virtue of the war power, they will, of necessity, be constrained to support a governmental policy which shall give the amplest measure of vigor to that system. If they had been free to choose, they would have blindly rejected that system, but as they can do nothing else than live under it, they will adapt their ideas and habits to it, intent on making the best of it they can in the circumstances that surround them. Protection, consequently, is in a fair way to receive reinforcements from a quarter out of which, for many years, it has encountered only the fiercest opposition.

Nor is this all. Skilled workmen, particularly, comprehend that the present scales of wages in this country, or scales in any reasonable degree proportionate thereto, can only be maintained by a governmental breakwater against competition from without. Free Trade in the products of any or all the regular and common branches of industry, imports that, making allowance for the differences in freight and exchange, the remuneration of labor shall be reduced to substantially the same level in all countries, and this not by the process of increasing where compensations are lowest, but by lessening where they are highest. This cannot be otherwise. If the producers in the same line, should be situated on opposite sides of a river or street, and one should have the advantage of cheaper capital and labor, all other conditions being equal, it would follow necessarily that the operator having this advantage would drive his competitor into bankruptcy, or else force his workmen to accept wages so far reduced as to make up the discrepancy. Nor would it make any odds if these two competitors should be located on opposite side of a continent or ocean.

This tendency of Free Trade to suppress particular industries in the less populous and opulent communities is deserving of special consideration. In what does civilization consist? On the material side it certainly consists in a knowledge of the higher industries. Other conditions being the same between several nations, that one has the highest civilization in which the most arts are understood and prosecuted to the greatest perfection. In exact ratio as one art is broken down and practically lost, from any cause whatever, in a nation, is its civilization impaired. This is why Free Trade tends necessarily to barbarism. It is time to talk of resorting to more primitive employments when the more scientific recondite fail; but it is not so easy to do, nor so profitable either to the individuals directly concerned or to the nation itself.

What industrial art has the United States which it can afford to spare? If it has one, we do not know how to describe it. To our apprehension it seems much wiser, instead of letting go any knowledge we have, to concentrate here all the industries that exist elsewhere in moderate climates. We have all needful natural resources. Our physical and political circumstances invite to augmented population, to be drawn from both Europe and Asia, bringing the industries of those countries, and thus enriching the civilization existing here. The prudence of this course is so obvious that the republic will be slow to reject it.

Meeting of the Allegheny Temperance League.

A regular meeting of the Allegheny Temperance League was held in the Union M. E. Church, Fifth ward, Allegheny City, last evening, Rev. E. E. Swift in the Chair. The meeting was opened with prayer by the President. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The speaker of the evening was detained by sickness, when, on the question as to what should temperance voters do with the nominees of the recent political convention, remarks were made by Mr. David Blair, Mr. W. G. Warren, President Swift, and others.

It was urged to arouse the temperance people of this county to put forth men and measures for the relief of suffering humanity, and devise some measures to stop the evil of intemperance.

Notice was given of the anniversary meeting of the League, to be held in the Sandusky Street Baptist Church on Tuesday evening, June 29th.

On motion, adjourned with benediction.

Murdered His Wife.

Samuel Morrow, residing on Barren run, Southampton township, Westmoreland county, about eight miles from West Newton, murdered his wife on Monday morning, by fracturing her skull with a club. He fled to the woods after committing the deed clad in only his shirt and pants. The entire neighborhood were in pursuit of him, but up to noon, yesterday, he was not captured. No cause is assigned for the deed, but it is presumed the murderer was laboring in insanity, to which he was disposed. His son, a young man, endeavored to protect his mother, but was beaten off by the father, who wickedly turned upon him. The woman's head was beaten into a crushed mass with the repeated blows. The murderer is about fifty years of age.

We Take Water.

The Commercial, in alluding to an aquatic blunder in the GAZETTE of Monday, corrects as follows: Hamill had no race with Brown last season. The last race between those parties was at Newburg, New York, in September, 1867, for a purse of $4,000, and was won by Hamill. So it will be seen that Walter never wrested the championship from our townsman. Hamill, however, after his last race with Brown, resigned the championship, and the Portland oarsman then proclaimed himself champion of America. Henry Coulter challenged him in due time, and the race for the championship last season, to which the GAZETTE no doubt alludes, was between Brown and Coulter, the former winning."

That's so. We acknowledge the blunder, but if our sporting editor can't keep the run of these little affairs, he's splendid on time.

Held for a Hearing.

Alphouse Rahe, charged before Justice Cartright with assault and battery, on oath of Henry Reinhauser, was brought to the lock-up last night to await a hearing. It appears that the prosecutor is the proprietor of a lot near East Liberty, on which there is a cherry tree, and the temptation to taste the red and luscious looking fruit was more than Alphouse could resist, and he, in company with a lad about his own age, seventeen years, entered the enclosure and climbed the tree. About this time the proprietor came out and made an attack upon them, whereupon Alphouse, instead of trying to make his escape, turned on the prosecutor and inflicted severe injuries upon him.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh—Fourth Annual Convention—First Day's Proceedings.

MORNING SESSION.

The Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Pittsburgh commenced its Fourth Annual Convention yesterday morning, in Trinity Church, Sixth avenue. The occasion was one of great interest to the members of that religious denomination, and attracted a considerable attendance of visitors, in addition to the regularly credentialed Clerical and Lay Deputies.

DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

In accordance with the usual rule, religious services were first in order, and began at 10½ o'clock. The Right Rev. Bishop Kerfoot in Episcopal robes, together with the following Presbyters in surplices were in the chancel: Rev. Thos. Crumpton, Rector of St. Pauls, Lacyville; Rev. Richard S. Smith, St. Peters, Uniontown; Rev. J. F. Spaulding, of St. Pauls, Erie; Rev. Marcus A. Tolman, of St. Johns, Franklin, and Rev. John Scarborough, of Trinity, Pittsburgh. The morning service to the Second lesson were read by Rev. R. S. Smith, the Creed and following prayer by Rev. Mr. Tolman, the Decalogue by the Bishop, the Epistle by Rev. Scarborough, and the Gospel by the Bishop.

The twenty-sixth hymn was then sung, as the Te Deum and Psalm had been before, by the Quartette Choir of Trinity Parish in their usual effective manner. The Convention sermon, by the Rev. J. F. Spaulding, of Erie, was next delivered. The text selected was the 11th verse of the 2d Epistle of Peter. The theme was the authority vested in the Christian ministry, and was developed with that force and clearness characteristic of all the Reverend gentleman's efforts. From the testimony of Scripture that the appointment of the minister was of Divine authority, he maintained then that he occupied the position of an embassador from heaven, and as such his message should be reverentially heeded, his authority in the government of the church carefully recognized, and his office held supremely sacred by all among whom he was called to labor. He regretted the tendency among the people in the present day to depart from this standard, and recommended the ministers as a check somewhat, to this evil, firmly, not, however, in a dictatorial spirit, but with love and gentleness and in the spirit of the Master, to maintain the power given to them. The discourse throughout was a most eloquent and able one, and abounded in many valuable truths.

The Communion Service of the Church was then read, and the sacred emblems administered to the Clerical and Lay Delegates present, the Bishop acting as Celebrant, assisted by Rev. John Scarborough, Rector of Trinity Parish, and Rev. Thomas Crumpton, Rector of St. Paul's, Lacyville, which concluded the religious exercises.

ORGANIZATION.

After a short interval the Bishop called the Convention to order, a few minutes after twelve o'clock.

The list of Clerical and Lay Deputies was then read, as follows:

On Unfinished Business—Rev. Wm. Fuller, Reuben Miller, Wm. C. Kelso.

Rev. R. J. Coster was elected Secretary by acclamation.

The reports of the Committee on Finance and the Standing Committee of the Diocese were presented.

Several announcements relative to the conduct of the business were then made by the Bishop, and the Canvention took a recess until three o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Reassembled at three o'clock.

The credentials of a number of delegates, not present at the morning session, were received.

Rev. M. A. Tolman moved that visitors from other than the Pittsburgh Diocese be admitted to seats in the Convention. Carried.

Rev. Alexander Davidson, of the the Diocese of York, was, in accordance with this action, introduced to the Convention.

Rev. Henry F. Hartman was appointed Assistant Secretary.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS.

Right Rev. Bishop Kerfoot then delivered his annual address, which was listened to with the most careful attention throughout.

The first portion was especially devoted to a review of the work in the Diocese during the year, which was mentioned in detail and at considerable length. The recapitulation of the results exhibited progress in every department, and was replete with encouragement to every active worker in the cause. Reference was made in the remainder to the General Convention held in New York in October, 1868, and the important doings of that body very clearly explained and commented upon. The work in distant fields of labor, in the United States, and the Missionary departments in foreign countries were alluded to and especially recommended to the attention of all who felt interested in the advancement of the cause throughout the world. The address was one of the most thoroughly earnest and practical pastoral discourse we have ever had the pleasure of listening to, and we regret that its great length, and our want of space alone prevents its being published entire in our account of the proceedings this morning. An idea of it could not be given in a brief synopsis, and we are therefore compelled to refer merely to its salient points, which were amplified with great eloquence, force and beauty.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

At the conclusion of the Bishop's address, Rev. Dr. Page (Rev. Mr. Fuller in the chair,) moved that a committee of five be appointed by the Bishop, with himself as chairman, to prepare a letter to the Metropolitan of Cape Town, congratulating him on the elevation of Bishop Macrorie to the Bishoprick of Peter Moritzburg. Carried.

Rev. Purdon, of Titusville, moved that a committee of three be appointed to report upon the best manner of conducting the election of Vestrymen, and the preparation of a new charter for the uniform government of vestries. Carried.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Rev. J. D. Wilson presented the report of the Committee on Episcopal Residences, which sets forth that further efforts in the business committed to their care was rendered unnecessary, as the Finance Committee had been offered a house for the use of the Bishop, on favorable terms. The Committee therefore asked to be discharged. The report was accepted and the request granted.

Rev. W. White presented the report of the Committee on new Parishes, stating that the charters of Immanuel Church, Allegheny, and the Church of the Intercessor Jefferson county, had been examined and found correct, and the Committee recommended their admission into the Diocese.

The report was received and recommendation adopted.

Mr. James Cooper presented the report of the Committee on the admission of Lay deputies to the Convention, which elicited considerable discussion, the point in dispute being in relation to the assessments on each parish, some of which were thought by the deputies to be too large. Thirty parishes were found to be deficient in their assessments, and accordingly their deputies were excluded from seats in the Convention.

On motion the paper was finally referred to the Finance Committee to report in reference to the justice of the assessments; the deputies from the delinquent parishes in the meantime being allowed sittings in the Convention.

THE ELECTIONS.

The Chair announced the next order of business to be the election of the various officers and standing committees for the ensuing year.

On motion, the election of Deputies to the General Convention was postponed until June, 1870.

The remaining nominations were made and the election made the first order of business for this morning.

Revs. Spaulding and J. D. Wilson, Clerical, and Messrs. Smith & Garfield, Lay Delegates, were appointed Tellers, to conduct the election.

The Convention then adjourned until this morning at nine o'clock.

THE TRUSS.

The truss is an instrument, or rather an appliance, employed to retain the bowels to their proper place, when they have been forced out of their natural position, and this forms a disease called a rupture or hernia. Hernia is reducable or or not. When not reducable, it becomes strangulated or incarcerated, a condition of always more or less danger, and requiring, in most cases, a surgical operation before the intestines can be restored to their proper position. When not strangulated primarily, ruptures are liable to become so by accident or neglect, hence, the necessity of trusses to keep the intestines in their proper place, and if possible to cure the disease by closing the opening through which the bowels protruded. In times past trusses have been regarded as palliative remedies rather than the means of effecting a radical cure. Dr. Keyser, however, of this city, who has devoted a great deal of thought and reflection to the subject of hernia, and besides has had over twenty-five years of practical experience in the application of trusses, is of the opinion that a large portion of cases can be radically cured. He attributes the failure to cure, in most cases, to the inefficiency of the trusses used, or the want of proper adjustment. He maintains that there are few conditions of the human body requiring greater skill and capacity than those in which there is a protrusion of any part, and much more so when the part is so intimately connected with human health and life as are the intestines. Trusses of every kind and at prices suitable to all may be had in great variety at Dr. KEYSER'S GREAT MEDICINE STORE, 167 Liberty street, or at his private consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, from ten A. M. until four P. M. Every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, at the store, for free consultation from our to six P. M., and eight to nine at night.

USEFUL INSTITUTION.—No more useful place can be found than the great medicine store of Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, where the Doctor gives three free days for consultation from 4 to 6 P. M. every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. It is a matter of some moment to the afflicted that they should know this and avail themselves of an opportunity not often afforded.

CATARRH.—Dr. Keyser, at 120 Penn street, will undertake and cure the worst case of Catarrh, by an entirely new system, so as to completely eradicate it from the system. He does so by restoring the general health of the system. Let those interested inquire if this is true.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinie was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and happiness.

For many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

☞NOTICE.—MEETING OF BREWERS AND TAVERN KEEPERS.—A meeting of the Brewers and Tavern Keepers of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Birmingham and vicinity will be held at the HALL OF WALKER & HOWART, on Ohio street, Allegheny, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9th, at 3 o'clock, to which all interested are respectfully invited, as business of importance will be laid before the meeting.

VALUABLE CITY LOTS FOR SALE.

The undersigned, as trustee in the partition of the real estate of

AGNES KNOX, Deceased,

By order of the District Court of Allegheny county, will sell at public sale, on the premises, on

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1869,

At 2 o'clock P. M., that very valuable property on Fifth avenue, city of Pittsburgh, consisting of TWO LOTS. First—A lot fronting on Market street 30 feet and extending the same width, along the south side of Fifth avenue 101 feet to Market alley. Second—A lot on the opposite side of Market alley fronting on Fifth avenue 20 feet and running back, preserving the same width, along Market alley 30 feet. On the first mentioned lot are FOUR FRAME TENEMENTS, and on the other a THREE STORY BRICK BUILDING.

These lots are among the most valuable in the city of Pittsburgh, being on the principal street and in the centre of business. The attention of capitalists is particularly invited to them, as they are desirable chiefly for the value of the lots, the buildings not being of much consequence, and possession for building purposes can be obtained on 3 months' notice. The property now rents for over eight thousand dollars. The purchaser will receive the rents after July 1st.

THE TERMS OF SALE.

One-third cash, and the remaining two-thirds in two equal annual payments, with semi-annual interest from day of sale, secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, June 8, 1869.

The locking up of greenbacks had but little effect on the gold market and the premium advanced in spite of the stringency of the money market, although bonds had yielded about ⅜ per cent and stocks from 15 to 20 per cent, for the fancy or watered shares, and even the most solid shares on the stock exchange declined from 4 to 6 per cent. Towards noon, however, a better feeling prevailed and a sharp reaction took place. Operators are very careful in buying and the purchasers are reduced to the covering of the short interest.

Government bonds remain steady, but yielded on lower quotations from Europe. The late decline, however, has brought out some large blocks of bonds, in anticipation of a rise in gold and lower quotations from Europe.

Money is easy and business dull.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 138¾; Silver, 130; Eighty-one's, 121¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 122⅜; do 1864, 117¼; do 1865, 118¼; do 1865, Consols, 119⅝; do 1867, 119⅜; do 1868, 119¾; Ten Forties, 109½; New York Central, 88¾; Erie, —; Reading, 97¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 157¾; Ohio & Mississippi, 33⅜; Michigan Southern, 108; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 96½; Chicago & Rock Island, 103¾; Chicago & North Western, 90¾; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 101⅜; Adams Express Company, 59½; Merchants Union Express, 14½; Pacific Mail, 82½; Western Union Telegraph Company, 40¾; Gregory, —; Quartz Hill, —; Smith & Parmlee, —; Am. NEW YORK, June 8.

Money in active demand at 7 per cent. on call until after the close of bank hours. Sterling firmer at 9¼@9½. Gold opened at 138⅜ and closed at 138¾@138⅞. The advance in exchange was the main reason for the increase in gold. Carrying rates, 2@7 per cent.; clearances, $51,000,000.

Governments dull but firm. Coupons of '81, 121⅞@122; do. '62, 122½@122⅝; do. '64, 117⅜@117½; do. '65, 117⅝; new do., 119⅜@120; do. '67, 119¾@119⅞; do. '68, 119¾@119⅞; 10-40s, 119⅛@119¼.

State bonds weak. Missouris, 92; new Tennessees, 62@62½; North Carolinas, 60: Virginias, 62.

The railway speculation at the opening was feverish and unsettled, and the lowest prices in the recent downward turn were made. New York Central sold as low as 188½. At the decline there was heavy buying to cover the previous speculative sales and by large holders of stocks, which carried prices up rapidly from 1@3 per cent. The market continued strong until the one o'clock session of Stock Exchange, when it became weak and feverish, Michigan Southern falling to 107⅞, and the transactions were large during the forenoon. In the afternoon the feeling was quieter and prices showed but unimportant changes. There was some recovery from the lowest prices, but the market closed feverish and unsettled, with a panic and heavy fall. In Mariposa two small failures were announced.

Bidding prices at 5-30—Cumberland, 32; Wells Express, 31¾; American, 39½; Adams, 59½; United States, 67; Merchants Union, 14½; Quicksilver, 16; Canton, 64¾; Pacific Mail, 82¼; Western Union Telegraph, 41; Mariposa, 10; do. preferred, 31; New York Central, 119; Erie, 29; do. preferred, 52; Hudson, 157¼; Reading, 77¾; Terre Haute, 38; Wabash, 74¼; preferred, 80; St. Paul, 76½; do. preferred, 87; Fort Wayne, 158; Ohio and Mississippi, 33¾; Michigan Central, 103¾; Michigan Southern, 108½; Illinois Central, 142; Pittsburgh, 97¾; Lake Shore, 108; Rock Island, 119½; Northwestern, 90¾; do. preferred, 102.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, June 8, 1869.

The oil market was comparatively quiet to-day, the excitement which prevailed yesterday having pretty well subsided, and the feeling both in Crude and Refined was decidedly easier, and prices, generally, a fraction lower. The volume of business, compared with yesterday, was very small, the sales in the aggregate falling short fully one half and there appeared to be more sellers than buyers. There was an offer to sell at Oil City at $5,60, against sales yesterday at $5,85, while in this market the sales show a decline of a cent and a half on some deliveries, which is quite a fall in so short a time. Notwithstanding these sudden and violent fluctuations, the trade is in a healthy condition, more so than during any preceding time this year, and the receipts of Crude and shipments of Refined indicate that the great majority of our manufacturing establishments have resumed operations.

CRUDE.

As already intimated, was somewhat easier to-day, sellers generally being more anxious to operate, while on the other hand, as always is the case when the market is weak, buyers were very timid and not disposed to buy even at the reduction. Sales 1,000 each July to December at 15¼; 1,000 June at 14; 1,000 spot at 14; 1,000 July to September at 15; and 4,000 and 2,500, all year, seller, at 13½.

REFINED

Also, was quiet and weak with a drooping tendency. Sales 1,000 spot at 32½; 1,000 July at 32½; 1,000 do at 32¾; 500 do at 32¼; 1,000 June at 32½; 500 do at 32¼; 1,000 July to September at 33, and there was a sale pending of 500 each July to December at same figure. Market opened strong in the forenoon and for a time it looked as if there would be a repetition of yesterday, but it soon cooled down and continues quiet and weak during the balance of the day.

Indian Affairs—Executive Order.

The following Executive order has been made:

Executive Mansion, June 3d.—A commission of citizens having been appointed by the President, under the authority of law, in the management of Indian affairs, consisting of Messrs. W. Welsh, of Philadelphia, John O. Farwell, of Chicago, George H. Stuart, Philadelphia, R. W. Campbell, St. Louis, W. E. Dodge, New York, E. S. Toby, Boston, F. R. Brunot, Pittsburgh, Nathan Bishop, New York, and H. S. Lane, of Indiana, the following regulations will, until further directions, control the action of said Commission, and of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, in matters coming under their joint supervision:

1st. The Commission will make its own organization and employ its own clerical assistants, keeping its necessary expenses of transportation, subsistence and clerk hire, when actually engaged in said service, within the amount appropriated therefor by Congress.

2d. The Commission shall be furnished with full opportunity to inspect the records of the Indian Offices and obtain full information as to the conduct of affairs therefor.

3d. They shall have full power to inspect, in person, or by sub-committee, the various Indian superintendencies and agencies in the Indian country, to be present at the payment of annuities and consultations and councils with Indians, and when on the ground to advise the Superintendents and Agents in the performance of their duties.

4th. They are authorized to be present, in person, or by sub-committee, at the purchase of goods for Indian purposes, and inspect the said purchases, advising with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs in regard thereto.

5th. Whenever they shall deem it necessary or advisable that the instructions of the Superintendents or Agents be changed or modified, they will communicate such through the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to the Secretary of the Interior, and in a like manner their advice as to changes in the modes of purchasing goods or conducting the affairs of the Indian Bureau proper. Complaints against Superintendents or Agents or other officers will in the same manner be forwarded to the Indian Bureau or Department of the Interior for action.

6th. The Commission will, at their board meeting, determine upon the recommendations to be made as to the plans of civilization or dealing with the Indians, and submit the same for action in the manner above indicated, and all plans involving the expenditure of public money will be acted upon by the Executive or Secretary of the Interior before the expenditure is made under the same.

7th. The usual mode of accounting with the Treasury cannot be changed, and all expenditures, therefore, must be subject to the approvals required by law and by the regulations of the Treasury Department, and all vouchers must conform to the same laws and requirements and pass through the ordinary channel.

8th. All the officers of the government connected with the Indian service are enjoined to afford every facility and opportunity to said Commissioners and their sub-Commissioners in the performance of their duties, and to give the most respectful heed to their advice within the limits of such officers, positive instructions from their superiors to allow such Commissioners full access to their records and accounts, and to co operate with them in the most earnest manner to the extent of their proper powers in the general work of civilizing the Indians, protecting them in their legal rights and regulating them to become industrious citizens in permanent homes instead of following a roving savage life.

9th. The Commission will keep such records or minutes of their proceedings as may be necessary to afford evidence of their action, and provide for the manner in which their communications with and their advice to the Government shall be made and authenticated.

[Signed] U. S. GRANT.

Commissioner Parker instructs army officers assigned to duty as Indian agents and Superintendents as follows:

It being the wish of the Government of the United States to collect the Indians and locate them in permanent abodes upon reservations, and reasonable appropriations having been made to assist them in sustaining themselves after such location by the pursuits of civilized life, you are earnestly requested to use your best endeavors in co-operating to advance this humane and wise policy. Hence you will use every means to inform yourself as fully as possible respecting the condition of the Indians in your superintendency, impressing the Indian mind on every favorable opportunity with the views of the Government, and thus prepare them to submit to the inevitable change of their mode of life to pursuits more congenial to a civilized state. You will endeavor to keep constantly before their minds the pacific intentions of the Government, and obtain their confidence by acts of kindness and honesty and justly dealing with them, thereby securing that peace which it is the wish of all good citizens to establish and maintain. Your success in the accomplishment of these objects will depend greatly upon the efficiency, discretion and care to be exercised by you in the economical expenditure of the means placed at your disposal for this purpose, and it is confidently hoped the result will prove the wisdom and efficiency of your appointment for this responsible duty.

The New York Sun of yesterday contains an account of a fashionable wedding, from which we select the following:

The more amusing scenes, and those that most illustrate the utter want of system and management in the affair, now occurred. The usherers followed the bridal party from the church, leaving the guests to get out and find their carriages as best they could. A grand rush was made for the doors. Rich trains were trampled on and torn, elegant toilettes were sadly mussed up in the melee, jewelry was torn off and lost in the jam, ladies were separated from their escorts, and gay cavaliers sought vainly for their fair charges. At the door everybody shouted for his coachman at once, and all the Jehus made a simultaneous push for the entrance, mixing the carriages up in the most inextricable confusion. Some headed down street and others up. Some got loads, but were no better off than those who got none, as neither could get out of the crowd. Finally, a detachment of police came to the rescue and lent their aid to bring order out of the confusion that prevailed. Then it turned out that the Smith family had gone off in Brown's coach, and Smith's driver, still waiting for his proper load, refused to take any other. Several parties, despairing of finding their carriages, proceeded to the reception on foot, muttering anything but praises of the arrangements.

Castelar as an Orator.

Senor Castelar has, without contradiction, the mightiest lungs, the finest voice, the firmest faith, the stoutest assurance, the freshest memory, the most discursive erudition, the most elegant rhetoric, the most perverse logic, that were ever given to mortal speaker. He begins and ends and goes through his address always at the top of his voice. The flow is incessant; the vehemence unflagging; the thread of argument, such as it is, never lost. You hear of men chopping logic; Castelar's power lies in chopping history. He is, and has been for years, historical professor at the University. He must have hundreds of his most polished lectures by heart; a propos to anything and a propos to nothing, down come the records of the past to illustrate the present. It is a jumble of facts and inferences perfectly bewildering. Of course, some of the illusions are exceedingly ingenious, some extremely far-fetched, some wondrously commonplace and claptrap. If Castelar gave you time to contradict him, you would be at little pains to prove him the most wrong headed reasoner that ever was; but the fact is, he gives you no such time. His imagination flies and flutters before you like a Will-o'-the-wisp, alluring as it beguiles you, delighting as it provokes you, till you give yourself up, bound hand and foot, over head and ears in love with the orator, content, for the while, to rave and blunder with him, to distort facts and to outrage common sense with him. This is, however, only Castelar's argument; you must wait for the peroration. Castelar's forte is passion; he relies for success on sympathy, and there is that in his earnestness, candor, and genuine uprightness of ends and means, which makes him perfectly irresistible. He has the noblest heart under the biggest, if not, perhaps, the soundest head. There is a good deal of the believer, of the seer, in the man; there is that which awes where it fails to convince, which satisfies you as something not to be reduced to the ordinary human standard, something to be taken with discretion, and, as it were, under protest, and not to be carped at or quarreled with; "an apocalypse," as he himself calls it, which may have something in it and may turn out true. Add to this the most surprising variety and liveliness, flashes of the readiest wit and sarcasm, the most unexceptionable good breeding, good nature and good taste, the most unerring hits with the least possible offense. Castelar is incomparable as a gentleman, however unripe as a scholar and absurd as a politician. And, mind, I have never seen or heard him otherwise than in public. I have neither friendship nor antipathy to bias my judgment, and I think it is well worth a man's while to travel all the way from London to Madrid only to hear him.—Cor. London Times.

Woman and Marriage.

I have speculated a great deal on matrimony. I have seen young and beautiful women, the pride of gay circles, married, as the world says, well. Some have moved into their costly houses, and their friends have all come and looked at their furniture and their splendid home for happiness, and have gone away and committed them to their sunny homes, cheerfully and without fear. It is natural to be sanguine for them, as the young are sometimes carried away with similar feelings.

I love to get unobserved into a corner and watch the bride in her white attire, and with her seeming smiling face and soft eyes meeting me in the pride of life, weave a walking dream of future happiness, and persuade myself that it will be true. I think how they will sit upon the luxuriant sofa as the twilight falls, and build gay hopes, and murmur in low tones the not now forbidden tenderness, and how thrilling the allowed kiss and beautiful endearments of wedded life will make even parting their joy, and how gladly they will come back from the crowded and empty mirth of the gay to each other's quiet company.

I picture to myself that young creature, who blushes even now at his hesitating caresses, listening eagerly for his footstep as the night steals on, wishing he would come, and when he enters at last, with an affection as undying as his pulse, nestling upon his bosom. I can feel the tide that goes flowing through the heart, and gaze with him on the graceful form as she moves about in the kind offices of affection, soothing all his unquiet cares, and making him even forget himself in her young and unshadowed beauty.

I go forward for years, and see her luxuriant hair put soberly away from her brow, and her girlish graces resigned into dignity and loveliness, chastened with the gentle meekness of maternal affection. Her husband looks on with a proud eye, and shows the same fervent love and delicate attentions which first won her, and her fair children are grown about them, and they look on, full of honor and untroubled years, and are remembered when they die.—Washington Irving.

Kissing in the Cars.

The Charivari gives the following advice to young gentlemen under the heading: "The art of loving on the cars." "Permit me to suggest to you a very easy way of kissing a number of pretty women. You are in a railroad car, and two or three ladies and one or two gentlemen enter the same coupe. At the first tunnel through which the train passes, as soon as nobody can see you, you put a very loud kiss on the back of your hand. Nothing is more curious than to see the faces of your fellow-travelers as soon as the train emerges from the tunnel. The gentlemen cast furious glances about them; the ladies blush, each of them believing that her fair neighbor received the kiss and ignorant of the man who gave it to her. Everything goes on well; your prospects are excellent. At the second tunnel you boldly kiss the first lady; she dares not cry out, bearing in mind as she does that her fair companion, to whom happened the same misfortune, did not say anything. Can she behave more indignantly? Would she not thereby betray the other lady to her husband? For the rest, the second kiss was not as loud as the first. At the third tunnel the same course is to be pursued towards the other lady, who, for the same reason, does not say anything. Thus you get a kiss at every tunnel except the first one."

A SOMEWHAT peculiar village government exists in Clarksville, Ky. The trustees number nine, and form a kind of independent confederacy. They are elected for life, and as each member dies a new one is elected by the board to fill his place. It is said that under the provisions of the charter of Clarksville the State government cannot compel it to pay any school tax, nor bear any of the general expenses of the State.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 245 pounds was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

The feeling in the congregation is almost unanimous on the subject.

At Christ Church the vote stood one hundred and sixty-nine for and two against the measure.

Meeting of the Street Committee.—A meeting of the Street Committee was held in the Committee rooms, City Building, last evening. A number of ordinances for the grading and paving of streets were considered favorably. A contract for the construction of a board walk on Elm street was let to Mr. McDowell. The Committee are awake to the necessity and importance of grading and paving streets, and a large amount of work of that character will be done the present season.

Trinity Chapel—Laying of the Corner Stone.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Epis opal Convention yesterday afternoon, the members and visitors engaged in the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the new chapel now in course of erection for the use of the Trinity Church congregation. The new structure is located on the rear portion of the lot occupied by the main Church building, and when completed will be an ornament to the city and a monument to the liberality and zeal of its builders. The exercises were of a highly interesting character and attracted a very large attendance of the friends and members of the congregation, under whose auspices the building is being erected. The corner stone contained no deposits, being perfectly solid, and without an inscription. This was left for the corner stone of the new church building, to be erected as soon as the chapel is completed and the old one removed.

The clergy in their robes headed the procession from the church, the Bishop repeating at they walked the one hundred and twenty-second Psalm. When all had gathered around the designated spot the Bishop led in Prayer, after which the stone was placed in position with the usual ceremonies.

The one hundred and second Selection was then sung, commencing

> We build w th fruitless cost, unless
> The Lord the pile sustain;
> Unless the Lord the city keep,
> The watchman wakes in vain.

The Bishop next delivered a brief and appropriate address, which was followed by remarks from Rev. S. F. Spaulding, of St. John's, Erie, and Rev. J. H. Eagar, of St. Peter's, Pittsburgh.

The company again joined in singing the 101st hymn, commencing

> And wilt thou, O Eternal God!
> On earth establish thine abode?
> Then look propitious from thy throne
> And take this temple for thine own.

which was followed with an address by Rev. W. P. Ten Broeck, of St. Johns. Pittsburgh. At the conclusion of Rev. Ten Broeck's remarks, the choir chanted "Gloria in excelsis," when the Bishop closed the exercises with prayer, and dismissed the company with the benediction.

In the City.

It gave us great pleasure, yesterday, to greet Gen. Geo. S. Gallupe, now in the city, enjoying a brief respite from his army duties on the frontier of the north-western peninsula of Michigan, where he has been stationed with a portion of his regiment, the 1st Infantry, for a considerable time. He is in the enjoyment of perfect health, if a superb physique be any indication, the northern climate seeming to have well suited his vigorous temperament. He is accompanied by his accomplished wife, and will for a few days mingle with his many friends in this locality.

CENTRAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Regular Meeting—Reports of City Superintendant and Principal of the High Schools.

A regular meeting of the Central Board of Education was held at two o'clock yesterday.

The meeting organized by calling Mr. Nobbs to the chair.

Members present; Messrs. Thomas Aiken, George H. Anderson, Jared M. Brush, Samuel Chadwick, Thomas J. Craig, James Cuddy, James A. Duncan, Adams Getty, John Harrison Joseph Hartman, P. H. Laufman, William Mays, Jacob H. Miller, Joseph Mitchell, Joseph H. Nobbs, John A. Sergeant Lewis J. Fleming and Thomas W. Shaw.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved.

HIGH SCHOOL REPORT.

Philotus Dean, Principal of the High School, presented his report for the month:

From May 3d to the 28th inclusive, the school was in session twenty days.

Following is a recapitulation of the attendance:

	Males.	Females.	Total.
High School	62	79	141
Normal	1	68	69
Commercial	76	0	76
Total	139	147	286

The report was received.

Mr, Sergeant, Secretary, then read his monthly report, stating that the warrants drawn during the month amounted to $13,164 95.

The sub-districts not having reported at the previous meeting were reported as having levied a tax for building purposes, as follows: Grant, 2 mills; Ralston, 3 mills; Moorhead, 8 mills, and 10 mills special; O'Hara, Washington, Liberty, Colfax and Minersville, 10 mills each; Lincoln, 20 mills; Peebles, 8 mills.

The report was received.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Mr. G. J. Luckey, Superintendent of the Public Schools of the city, submitted the following report:

GENTLEMEN: In making my last monthly report for the year ending June 1st, 1869, I beg leave to most respectfully tender to your honorable body my sincere thanks for your uniform kindness, and your hearty co operation with me in all my efforts to advance the interests of public education in our city, and I earnestly hope that I may, by a judicious administration of school affairs, during the present term, continue to merit your approval and retain your confidence, for without your entire support much of the labor performed in building up and extending our educational system would, indeed, be fruitless.

As I am now preparing my annual report which will contain an extended account of the educational interests of the city, I will omit for the present any general report for the last month, and give entirely the statistics as returned to this office. They are, however, not so full as might be desired, as some of the blanks authorized by you have not been filled. This is to be regretted, as it interferes greatly with the harmonious workings of the system.

Total enrollment, 8,459; average attendance, 6,909; percentage of attendance, 82.

PUNISHMENTS.

The corporal punishments have been reduced since last report over 36 per cent., and since January, 65 per cent. This is a very creditable showing, and certainly entitles our teachers to commendation for their efforts at government outside of the old time rule of brutality. All this has been accomplished and yet the discipline of our schools are greatly improved over that of other years.

The report was received.

Mr. Craig, from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries, submitted a verbal report, which was received.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING.

Mr. Hanna, from the Committee on High School Building, submitted the report of the Committee, as follows:

The Committee appointed to procure plans and solicit bids for the High School Building, respectfully report: That in pursuance of the instructions given them, your Committee advertised for proposals for the masonry and excavation of the basement, and having met on the second of June, proceeded to open the bids—five in number, for the stone work, and the same number for the excavation.

Your Committee recommend that the masonry and cut stone work be awarded to Mr. Patrick Brough, he being the lowest and best bidder. Your Committee also recommend that the excavation be awarded to Messrs. Flinn and Noonan, they being the lowest and best bidders for that department of the work.

Your Committee after careful examination of the stone from several quarries have unanimously agreed to recommend the stone known as the Clarion stone for the whole outer surface of the walls. The estimated cost of masonry of the basement built of Clarion stone will be $15,875.

The report was received and adopted, and the Committee continued and constituted the Building Committee.

On motion Mr. Nobbs and Mr. Hartman were added to the Committee.

The Secretary then read a communication from Mr. Darling inviting the members of the Central Board to attend the musical exhibition at the Fourth ward schools, Thursday next, at half past one o'clock. Received.

Mr. Anderson read a communication from the tax collector of Peebles District asking for an exonoration of $92, for lost taxes. Received and allowed.

Mr. Shaw presented a similar communication from the Collector of the Fourth ward for $321.20.

Referred to the member from the Fourth ward.

On motion, the Collector of Liberty was allowed an exoneration of $192.

The report from the Moorhead was referred to the member from that district for examination.

The Collector of Oakland district was allowed an exoneration of $198.40.

A number of other applications for exoneration were presented, and referred to the members from the several districts.

The application of the Collector from the old Fifth ward was taken up, and on motion of Mr. Craig, that portion of it referring to the exonerations on behalf of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was referred to a special committee. The Chair appointed Messrs. Craig, Miller, Hartman, Getty and Lauffman.

The Collector of the old Ninth ward was allowed exoneration amounting to $1,342.

Mr. Mays, from the Committee on Colored Schools, presented the report of the Committee:

The Committee reported in favor of leasing the basement of the Colored School building to the Colored Presbyterian congregation as a place of worship, and further recommends the establishment of a school for the accommodation of colored children in the outer wards.

On motion of Mr. Craig that portion of the report relative to the establishment of a new or branch school for colored children, was referred back to the Committee.

The report was then accepted as amended.

Mr. Hartman desired to call the attention of the Board to a mattter of importance, which was referred to in the City Superintendant's Report. It appears that the Local Board of the Forbes District have instructed the principal of the schools of that district not to report the number of cases of corporal punishments in said schools.

He offered a preamble and resolutions setting forth that as the Local Board of Forbes District assert that they have not received any official notice of action on the part of the Central Board requiring such reports to be made, and for that reason they refused to make the reports, and resolving that the Secretary be directed to pay the Principal for the month of May, which had been withheld on account of not having made the report as required, and to officially notify the Local Board of the action of the Central Board.

The resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Mays offered a resolution relative to the admission of pupils to the High School, making it necessary for applicants to have a certificate from the Principal as to residence, and also from the district from which the applicant comes. Adopted.

Mr. Craig stated that the Select Council chamber had been tendered to the Board for the purpose of holding its meetings, and moved that the offer be accepted.

The motion was lost.

Mr, Chadwick moved that the thanks of the Board be returned to Councils for the generous offer. Adopted.

Sundry bills were read by the Secretary and ordered to be filed.

On motion, adjourned.

South Pittsburgh Council—Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Council of South Pittsburgh was held at the office of Justice Barker, at eight o'clock, Tuesday evening, June 8, 1869.

Members present: Messrs. Brown, Kim, Haines and Sheargold.

On motion of Mr. Haines, Council organized by calling Mr. Brown to the Chair.

The minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

The Clerk presented the bill of the Gas Company for gas consumed by street lamps, amounting to $56 25.

Also, bill of W. M. McCombs, for lamps, &c., $13 50.

Also, bill of A. & J. McKenna, for vehicle license plates, $12.

The above bills were approved and warrants ordered to be drawn upon the Treasurer for the amount.

Mr. Brown presented a remonstrance, numerously signed by citizens of the borough, protesting against the appropriation of Manor street in said borough by the Monongahela Valley Railroad.

The remonstrance was received and ordered to be filed.

The bill of John Stemler for police service for the month of May, amounting to $60, was presented. Approved and ordered to be paid.

Sundry other bills for services rendered were presented, and warrants ordered to be drawn for the amounts.

Mr. Roberts, Burgess, read a communication from J. W. Patterson, Regulator, giving an estimate of the cost of grading Chestnut alley, from Fourth to Sixth street, as follows:

Grading	$ 245.00
Paving	1,875.00
Total	$2,120.00

The communication was received and filed.

Mr. Brown moved that the Street Committee be authorized to advertise for proposals for paving Chestnut alley, the proposals to be sealed and addressed to the Burgess, Dr. J. H. Roberts. Adopted.

Mr. Haines, from the Special Committee appointed, and to whom was referred the ordinance granting the right of way to the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company, reported that the Committee, from facts in their possession, were of opinion that the railroad company would not construct a road through the borough; and, on motion, the ordinance was postponed until such time as it was ascertained whether or not the company intended to or desired to run their road through the borough. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Haines, the Burgess was instructed to advertise for proposals for numbering the houses on the principal streets in the borough, and also, for having the streets marked and numbered.

On motion Council adiourned.

Increasing in Popularity.

The Singer Sewing Machine is every day increasing in popularity. The reason is evident. It possesses all the improvements that have been made in sewing machines since their invention, and is for that reason one of the most desirable in the market. Its work is invariably done well—quickly, neatly and thoroughly. It is not at all liable to derangement, in this respect excelling a majority of the other machines before the public; while it is so simple in its construction that no operator will experience any difficulty in understanding and managing it. Messrs. Straw & Morton, the enterprising agents for Pittsburgh, have a large and valuable assortment of machines now on hand, and are prepared to treat with their patrons on the most liberal and satisfactory terms. Ladies who are about purchasing a machine at all can do no better than to pay a visit to their rooms, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, and examine the large and handsome assortment on view there. Straw & Morton's sales during the past season have been unusually large, which is a most flattering indication of the standing of the "Singer" in the community.

Cheap Goods.

It is the privilege of consumers, and in fact a duty, also, to purchase goods wherever they can be bought the cheapest; but when we speak of cheap goods, we do not mean, as is commonly understood by the expression, goods of an inferior article, which are sold at low rates, because it is not always the goods bought for the least money that are the cheapect; but buy where you can get the best article for the least money. The establishment of W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Market street, is constantly supplied with a full stock of lace goods, hosiery, gloves, and trimmings of the very best quality, and the proprietor will not permit any establishment in the city to undersell him.

Stationery, in endless variety, including all the latest styles of note and letter paper, with envelopes to match, can be purchased cheap at Col. J. D. Egan's Book, Stationery and Periodical Store, Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street.

House and Store at Auction.—That good business and dwelling property, No. 73 Beaver avenue, Allegheny, is to be sold to-day (Wednesday,) at two o'clock. A. Leggate, auctioneer.

Lace Curtains, Gilt Cornices, Curtain Bands, Curtain Loops and Vestibule Laces of all kinds Bates & Bell.

The place to get White Lime, Calcined Plaster, Hydraulic Cement. Is at Ecker & Caskey's, 13 Smithfield street.

THE COURTS.

United States Court—Judge McCandless.

TUESDAY, June 8.—The only case disposed of was that against the proprietors of the Star Refinery, Tidioute, and sureties, for the recovery of the penalty of a transportation bond for oil to be shipped for export. Verdict for $2,000, to be released on the payment of $1,327, amount of tax on oil, including interest from May 30th, 1868.

District Court—Judge Kirkpatrick.

TUESDAY, June 8.—The case of W. P. McCabe vs. Burns & Stevenson, reported yesterday, was resumed and concluded. Jury out.

Samuel Bell vs. Joshua Stevenson. This was an action to recover the last installment of purchase money, alleged to be due to plaintiff from defendant, arising out of a sale of real estate sold. On trial.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

TUESDAY, June 8.—Christian Jeckel, tavern-keeper in Second ward, Allegheny, was placed on trial, charged with furnishing liquor to minors. The indictment, as the defendant's counsel smartly put it, was unlike a horse, having but three legs (counts.) Some difficulty was experienced in getting at the law applicable to the case, and there was for a time considerable handling of pamphlet law books, the Court remarking that the Legislature seemed to have repealed and re enacted statutes relative to the whiskey traffic without due consideration, rendering it extremely difficult to determine what acts were in force and what were not. Instances have occurred of the Court sentencing defendants and subsequently discovering that the acts under which judgment had been pronounced were repealed. Finally it was concluded that the case was covered by the sixth section of the act of March, 1867, relative to the licensing of taverns and preservation of order therein, (applicable only to Allegheny county,) which forbids any person selling, giving away, or disposing of intoxicating liquors to any person under twenty-one years of age, without consent of parent, guardian or master. The evidence clearly established the fact that intoxicating liquors had been furnished to minors, among others to Alfred McClain, aged eighteen years, at defendant's saloon, on the evening of last New Year's day. Mr. Morrison, counsel for defendant, raised a constitutional question, viz: that the sixth section referred to was unconstitutional, the subject matter not being germain to the title of the act. The Court declined to consider this grave question at this stage of the case. Mr. M., always bristling with sharp points, next excepted to the word "person," used in the section, being construed to mean "tavern keeper." The Court was not impressed with the importance of this point. Finally the jury retired, one of them, an aged gentleman, who evidently had lived under British excise laws, first inquiring particularly as to the "informer" in the case. After a brief absence they returned a verdict of guilty, but recommended the defendant to the mercy of the Court, probably in consideration of the fact that the youths who drank at his bar were not as "old" as they looked.

Moses Parker, colored, was indicted for felonious assault and battery, on oath of Thomas Murdoch, an ex-Constable. For the prosecution it was testified that on last Christmas day, Murdoch, while collecting taxes, his avocation at that time, defendant accosted him about some taxes which he had collected from him (the defendant). Hard words passed, Parker using abusive language. Murdoch determined to arrest him, but observing a knife in his possession, deemed it dangerous to make the attempt alone, and called a Mr. Rodgers to his assistance. The arrest was effected after a struggle, during which Murdoch's coat was cut by Parker, in his design, as claimed, to inflict a bodily injury. The defense (W. T. Haines, Esq., counsel,) called several witnesses, who testified they saw all of the fight, but did not see a knife in the hands of Parker. They, however, did see Murdoch rush at Parker and strike him with a "handy-billy," bringing him to his knees, and while in this position continued to beat him. The fact also appeared that when brought to the tombs Parker presented a decidedly "used up" appearance, having several cuts on his head, and pretty well covered with with bleod. Nothing was said at the tombs by Murdoch about a knife, and it was claimed by the defendant's counsel that this was an afterthought on the part of the prosecutor, as a means of covering up his unwarranted, brutal and cowardly abuse of the defendant. The jury acquitted of the felony charged, finding the defendant guilty of simple assault and battery. Sentence deferred.

Josephine Price, colored, pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny. Sentence suspended.

James Tartz pleaded guilty to the larceny of property of Bates and Bell, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for three years.

Samuel Shepley pleaded guilty to the larceny of an overcoat, watch and pair of pantaloons, the property of John Otto, of Second ward, Allegheny. Sentence deferred.

John Hughes and William M. Kern were acquitted of a charge of stealing eight hundred pounds of scrap iron, the property of Lloyd & Black.

East Birmingham Council.

A regular monthly meeting of the Council of East Birmingham was held last evening at the Hall of the Walton Engine Company. Burgess Ammon presided.

The following named members were present: Messrs. Beck, Jones, Foell, Walter and Miller.

The minutes of the last meeting were approved.

The Street Committee, through the Chairman, Mr. Jones, presented an ordinance providing for the grading, paving and curbing of Larkins, Carey and Fox alleys. Passed finally.

The Street Committee was authorized to advertise for proposals for grading and paving of the alleys named in the ordinance. Bidders are requested to examine the new paving law before putting in proposals.

A resolution, offered by the Chairman of the Street Committee, was adopted, authorizing the Regulator to prepare the necessary papers for all unpaid claims for paving, and hand them to the Solicitor for colletion.

The contract for grading and paving the Page street wharf, was awarded to Patrick Keating, at 28¾ cents per cubic yard.

On motion of Mr. Beck, the Street Committee, in conjunction with the Street Regulator, were instructed to examine the sewer drops on Sarah street, to ascertain if they are sufficient to carry off the waste water.

The Street Commissioner's report for the month of May was read. It shows the amount expended to be $476 12. The report was approved and the several bills embodied in the expenditures ordered to be paid.

On motion of Mr. Walton, the Street Commissioner was instructed to collect from the Ormsby heirs the amount due for draining a pond on Caroline street.

The following report from the Fire Committee was presented by Mr. Beck:

We, the Fire Committee, beg leave to report that we have examined the hose carriage and hose, and have to say, that the bell tower is finished according to contract; the company have (21) sections of hose in good condition; the carriage is also in good order. The company desires the borough to employ a janitor, a proper person can be had for $25 per month. We recommend the appointment of a janitor. We would also call the attention of Council to the manner in which the company have fitted up their hall.

The report was accepted, and, on motion of Mr. Beck, the Fire Committee, in conjunction with the company, are authorized to appoint a Janitor, define his duties, and submit a report on the subject to Council.

Herman Zedel, constable, presented his bill for two months' services, amounting to fifty dollars. It was ordered to be paid.

Council discussed the propriety of continuing Constable Zedel as a policeman, during which it was stated that he was doing absolutely nothing in the way of services to the borough. The matter was referred to the Police Committee, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The fire Committee was instructed to prepare an ordinance to prevent citizens from opening fire plugs except in case of fire.

Mr. Jones suggested that the fire plugs be examined. He had been informed that during the past ten days the water had been frequently turned off. It was turned off at the time of the fire on Sunday morning. The matter was referred to the Fire Committee.

The ordinance passed some time ago, granting to the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company the right of way through the borough, has been rendered null and void by a supplementary ordinance passed at last meeting, the Company having failed to execute the necessary articles of agreement in the said supplementary ordinance.

Mr. Beck moved that the Street Committee be authorized to build a sewer across Carson street, between Caroline and Olive streets, if necessary. The motion was lost.

Mr. Beck called the attention of the Street Committee to the bad condition of Edward's alley, caused by the refuse from slaughter houses.

Unrivaled.

The reputation of Pittsburgh restaurants and dining saloons is equal to that of any city in the United States, not alone on account of our excellent Market facilities, but because we have a few establishments in the city, the proprietors of which take a special pride in their business and endeavor to conduct it in such a manner as receives the approval of their patrons; and the others, if they desire to do a living business, must approximate to something near the standard established by these men. Our friend Holtzheimer, of the Continental, Fifth avenue, next door to the Postoffice, is one of the leading spirits in the business, and the Continental is the leading establishment.

It is Seldom that we use the columns of this paper to "puff" or notice the "thousand and one" articles known as "Patent Medicines." We, however, vary from our rule in the present case, that we may call attention to the article known as "S. T.—1860—X., Plantation Bitters." We desire it understood that we do so without any solicitation or promise of benefit from the proprietor or other interested parties, We simply do it as an act of duty towards those who are laboring under physical disabilities, weakness, and the various complaints arising from impurities of the blood. Having used the Bitters at the instigation of a friend, (and, we confess, with some misgivings at the out set.) we found them a most valuable medical compound, and to our great satisfaction, accomplished the object for which they were used.
